Religion, Art and Symbolism

Christian art has had a long tradition of representing the life and nature (personality) of Jesus, who is believed to be the Son of God. Images of Jesus can tell the story of some of the most significant events in Jesus' life such as his BIRTH or CRUCIFIXION, or may attempt to show his sacred and compassionate nature.

Other religions also make use of art as part of their religion and worship. In BUDDHISM mandalas are used as a spiritual symbol that represents the Universe. Mandalas are usually perfectly symmetrical and can be used to focus attention as an aid to meditation and finding a sacred space.

As MUSLIMS cannot use images to represent Allah and their Prophet, they make use of geometric designs that are aimed to invite believers to reflect upon the greatness of creation. The unending repetition of the designs represents God's infinite (unlimited) na-

The Life of Jesus (Key Events)

Mary is told by the angel Gabriel that she is going to have a very special baby.

Baby Jesus is born in Bethlehem and placed in a manger as there is no room at the inn.

When Jesus grew up he was BAPTISED in the River Jordan by John the Baptist.

Jesus spent 40 days alone in the desert but did not give in to evil as he chose to follow God and do good.

Jesus became a MORAL LEADER and people loved to listen to Jesus' stories and crowds would come to hear his parables.

One day a crowd of 5000 people came to listen and Jesus fed them all bread and fish. It was a miracle.

Not everyone liked Jesus. One day he threw the bankers out of the temple which made him unpopular with the Jewish leaders.

Jesus knew he had enemies and wanted one last meal with his closest friends, the Disciples. This became known as THE LAST SUPPER. Jesus shared bread and wine with them.

Jesus was put on trial and accused of speaking against God (blasphemy). The Roman Governor found Jesus guilty and said that Jesus should be crucified.

Roman soldiers made Jesus carry his own cross through the streets and put a crown of thorns on his head. This was because Jesus had called himself the KING OF THE JEWS.

Jesus was crucified next to two criminals at a place called Skull Hill. Jesus forgave those who had found him guilty and the criminal next to him who asked for forgiveness.

Jesus died and his body was taken to a cave tomb and sealed with stone, ready to be properly buried after the Sabbath.

When people went to the tomb to prepare the body for burial, the tomb was found empty!

A week after his death, Thomas saw Jesus and they knew he was alive again and had been RESURRECTED.
