

SUMMER READING CHALLENGE 2019

Read up to 4 books during the summer holidays and hand in your completed review booklet by Monday September 16 to the School Library. Your books can be borrowed from the school library to read during the holidays; borrowed from Suffolk Libraries or books you buy or already have unread at home. E-books also count towards the challenge; many E-Books are free from Suffolk Libraries Remember books from Libraries are FREE to borrow. See below links to joining Suffolk, Norfolk and Cambridgeshire Libraries online. Try to read as many books as you can and the more you read, the more awards you receive. Read any fiction or non-fiction book of your choice.

Present your booklet at Waterstones in Bury St Edmunds to receive 10% off any full price book.

Rewards

- Read two books for two merits and a bronze certificate
- Read three books and receive three merits and a silver certificate
- Read four books for four merits and a gold certificate

Deciding what to read next can be challenging. For ideas research your favourite authors, browse bookshops, talk to friends and family, head to your local library or check out these websites. Remember it is the 'holidays', so read for pleasure.
