

How students can access good quality online information for free from Suffolk Libraries if studying at home:

You will need a current Suffolk Libraries card to access these sites. Join online at <https://www.suffolklibraries.co.uk/help/joining-the-library/>

Access from home to these online resources

Britannica for students

Edition of the popular encyclopaedia aimed at older children and young teens, featuring topical articles, images and videos, biographies and primary sources across a range of topics.

Britannica for adults

Biographies, articles, primary sources and much more on a range of topics.

Q-files

Illustrated encyclopaedia for children.

World Digital Library

Historical and international primary resources including books, maps, manuscripts, newspapers, journals, prints and photographs. Available in 7 languages.

Access to Research

Millions of academic research papers and journals covering art, architecture, business, engineering, history, languages, politics, philosophy, mathematics and the sciences.

Collins Dictionary, Thesaurus and Translator

The home of living English, with more than 722,000 words, meanings and phrases.

BFI Screen Online

Film and television clips from a vast archive.

plus other archives of Newspapers, free magazines and e-books

go to <https://www.suffolklibraries.co.uk/research-and-reference/>

David Nichols
Librarian
King Edward VI School