History home learning ideas for soon-to-be Year 7s!

Are you keen to do some History at home? Here are some ideas of things you might like to have a go at doing. All of these are optional and are designed to be fun and historical.

| Tasks to do at home   | Out and about (at a socialdistance!)   |
|---|--|
| Archaeological crime sceneinvestigationHave a go at some lessons from the DigSchool online! In the first lesson, you willhave a look at a centuries old mystery andtry and solve it with archaeologicalevidence.http://digschool.org.uk/  | Learn more about Bury St EdmundsWith an adult, learn more about Bury StEdmunds by doing a historical tour!A 'blue plaque' (important people who havelived in the town) tour is available here:https://s3-eu-west-1.amazonaws.com/bury-dmo-website/assets/images/blog/Bury-St-Edmunds-Blue-Plaque-Trail-leaflet-FINAL.pdf?mtime=20190206110822A more general historical tour is availablehere:http://www.burystedmunds.co.uk/bury-st-edmunds-walk.html |
| Family mattersInterview a family member or family friendabout a period of History they have livedthrough. What are their strongestmemories? What did they take away fromthe experience? How is life different today?ORDo some research into your family historyor the history of your house. | Visit a historical site - close to home orfurther afield!This could be your local village Church, aNational Trust garden, or something else!Try and do some research into the historyof the place online and record yourobservations when you are actually thereA suggestion of places:Devil's Dyke, Reach - spectacularAnglo-Saxon construction which is free toaccess on a public footpath!  |
| Museums onlineThere are some amazing virtual museumtours you can take and play around on withfantastic objects!Suggestion:The British Museum shows their artefactsthrough time and across the world!https://britishmuseum.withgoogle.com/   |  |

| Time capsuleMake a time capsule of your time inlockdown, and write something to the you ofthe future!What do you think people hundreds ofyears in the future will be able to learn from |
|--|
| lown, and write something to the you of uture!   |
| your time capsule?   |

Any questions (or if you do something you'd like to share!) please email WX@king-ed.suffolk.sch.uk.