Student Code of Conduct for when representing King Edward VI School in a Sporting Event

Curiosity | Courage | Care | Creativity

- Students should be proud to be selected to represent King Edward VI School in a sporting event.
- Students must demonstrate excellent teamwork, determination and respect at all times when representing King Edward VI School.
- When committing to represent King Edward VI School in a sporting event, students should ensure they comply fully with the following key principles of the student code of conduct.

As a student – Prior to the sporting event:

- I will ensure I am organised and understand what sporting kit and equipment I need for the sporting event.
- I will be proactive in letting my parents/carers know I am representing King Edward VI School in a sporting event and its date and timings.
- I agree to respect the time given by a staff member to meet ready for a home or away sporting event.
- I will not attempt to leave a lesson earlier than advised.
- I will be respectful of the classroom teacher when asking permission to leave a lesson at the agreed time.
- I will proactively consider and discuss with the teacher of the lesson(s) I may be missing what work I need to complete.
- I agree to act responsibly when travelling to an away sporting event, being respectful of any instructions given by the accompanying staff member.

As a student – During the sporting event:

- I agree to being committed to working effectively as part of a team by supporting others during times of success and in defeat.
- I agree to represent King Edward VI School with pride and in a very determined, committed and respectful manner.
- I agree to act with humility as a King Edward VI School student when winning or losing at sporting events.

As a student – Following the sporting event:

- I agree to act responsibly when travelling home from away sporting events, being respectful of any instructions given by a member of staff.
- I agree to ensure I have completed any work from lessons that may have been missed whilst representing King Edward VI School.
- I agree to check for any homework that may have been set during the lesson I missed and to take responsibility to have this completed on time.
- I understand that if I fail to complete any work that may have been missed and do not respond to a teacher's efforts to remind me, that I may be excluded from future sporting events.
- I understand that if I fail to comply with any of the principles of the student code of conduct, I may be excluded from representing King Edward VI School at future sporting events.
